ACTIVITY: WORD WORK

What You Need:

Note cards and pencils

(if you don't have note cards, take sheets of paper, divide them into quarters, and tear/cut them to create note cards)

What You Do:

Ask your child to sit down with you. Ask, "What words would you use to describe a lazy person?"

Write down their responses on the note card- one for each card.

Then ask, "What words would you use to describe a person who works hard?"

Write down their responses on the note cards-one for each card.

Next, tell them to choose three cards that have words on them that they would want to be known for. Ask them why they chose those words.

TALK ABOUT THE BIBLE STORY:

Who was the young ruler of Israel who later wrote the wise saying we learned today? (Solomon)

Out of everything Solomon could have had, what did he ask God for? (wisdom)

What did Solomon become known for? (He became known as one of the wisest people to ever live?)

What did Solomon say about ants? (Ants have no ruler, but they still store up food on their own; they are hard workers.)

Describe what it feels like to be lazy.

How does it feel to work hard?

How can you tell if you're a hard worker or if you're lazy?

What's one thing that you tend to be lazy about? How can you work on being more responsible with that this week?

Share a story about a time you decided to stop being lazy in an area of your life-and how it paid off.

PRAYER

"Dear God, thank You for giving us an opportunity, each day, to work hard. We know that everything we do can show Your love to others. Please help us see ways we can work hard this week. Please work through us so we can make a difference in each other's lives. We love You! In Jesus' name, amen."
