

Position Profile

Nashville Local Good Director (Full-Time)

Reports to: Nashville Campus Pastor

Purpose:

Lead the strategies and tactics to support the vision of helping people find and follow Jesus through Local Good at Cross Point.

Skills & Abilities:

- Able to provide visionary and strategic leadership to Local Good
- Effective communicator and vision-caster
- Experienced team leader and developer of people, capable of fostering relational influence when there is no positional authority
- Collaborative spirit in working with other Central team leaders, campus pastors and campus Local Good ministry staff
- Able to make sound, timely decisions
- Commitment to embody and champion the vision of Cross Point, the multi-site strategy and the Cross Point staff values

Primary Responsibilities:

Leadership of Local Good at Nashville: Maintain a working knowledge of the Nashville community and its most pressing needs, and continually strategize ways that Cross Point can partner to support the community

- Collaborate with the Campus Pastor and the central local good team on best practices for recruiting local good leaders and finding and developing local partnerships
- Mobilize the Nashville campus to “go and love” Nashville through Serve the City and ongoing Local Good opportunities.
- Lead in the details, organization, and execution of Serve the City projects.
- Empower local good leaders to lead regular projects throughout the year.
- Oversee the Nashville Campus benevolence process.
- Work with campus staff to “give ministry back” by building relationships and equipping strong volunteers to both lead and execute ministry.
- Provide support to the Nashville Campus Pastor as needed, especially in the areas of pastoral care, benevolence and leadership development.

Requirements:

- Minimum 3 years Ministry experience
- Bachelor’s degree
- Experience in large scale volunteer management